A Message From your Exalted Ruler, Wendy Hall

As I write this message we are deep into planning for State Convention. When you read it, the Convention has come and gone and plans are being finalized for the Grand Lodge I will be attending in July.

As members of this great organization we need to remember what makes our charitable works possible. As Elks our primary duty is to support the events and activities which help fund your Lodge and its efforts. Dinners, events and utilizing the lounge area are all great opportunities to help provide the means to support our Lodge. Stop in, cool off and visit with your fellow Lodge members. Each person is a vital member of our Lodge.

This summer we have several new and exciting events that are being planned. Watch the Elksize and notices of activities in social media for fresh and new events. In addition there are numerous VP Visits to our West Central District Lodges, a visit by the State President and the annual Elks Day at the Rays with tickets available on the Florida Elks web page. For best seats get your tickets early.

Our Lodge kitchen is now featuring new Friday night menus along with keeping some of our favorites. We will be having several guest chefs featuring dishes they do best. We are working to feature great meals, fine entertainment and great drinks all at reasonable prices. Come check us out! You will find our menus listed in the Elksize. This is a great way to support your Lodge.

Welcome Our Newest Elk Members

June Elk Recognitions

ELK OF THE MONTH...CHRIS MILES, PER

Chris Miles, PER, stepped in during the time when the Lodge had no Treasurer and performed the responsibilities with his usual thoroughness. Often Chris goes unrecognized as his work ethic includes a quiet approach to getting the job done. For June it is appropriate to say thank you for all that you do.

OFFICER OF THE MONTH...LAURA JONES, TRUSTEE

Another person who always goes about whatever job she has agreed to do, or takes it upon herself to dive into a need at the Lodge is this month's Officer of The Month, Laura Jones, the 5 year Trustee. She is always available to answer any question or help with most any task at the Lodge. Our thanks to Laura and make sure you recognize her efforts next time you see her.

ENF Scholarship

And, we have a Winner!

Jonah Irwin, the son of Tampa 708 member Jodi Alison, has been awarded a $4,000 ENF scholarship. Jonah attended Robinson HS, participating in the school's accelerated International Baccalaureate program. Jonah will be attending Florida State University.

ENF Legacy scholarships are only available to the children or grandchildren of Elks - but they are still hard to come by. Only 20 were awarded to high school seniors in the state of Florida - a state with over 90 lodges!

Congratulations to Jonah and his family!

Ladies of the Elks:

June is here and the Ladies are revving up for a hot girl summer. We are starting off our summer with our annual LOE Walk A Thon to benefit Childrens Therapy Services. Join the Ladies on June 17 th at Ballast Point Park for a leisurely stroll through the Ballast Point hood. All are welcomed and 100% of the proceeds are donated to Children Therapy Services.

The Ladies are hosting our annual Father's Day Picnic on June 18 th . This will follow the Elk's Flag Day Ceremony. Dad eats free and his guests are only $8 per person. Fried chicken, potato salad and more are on the menu. We hope to see you there.

The Ladies are having another movie night at the lodge. 80 for Brady will show our on BIG screen, Wednesday, June 21 st . The movie starts at 7pm and is free for all to watch. However, the Ladies will offer a hot dog basket (hotdog, chips, coleslaw, baked beans and a sweet) for $10. Concessions (popcorn and candy) will also be available to purchase. Food will be available starting at 6pm. ALL proceeds will benefit Childrens Therapy Services. Gronk on the big screen, need we say more. Hope to see you at the movies!

A sneak preview into July for the Ladies. The Ladies are having their annual Low Country Boil on July 14 th . This has always been a popular event. Reservations are a MUST. Sign up sheet is located on the LOE board, or you may text/call 813-245-6458. See our flyer for more information.

I would like to take a moment to thank all who continue to support the Ladies. Our group may not be great in numbers, but we are mighty and determined to continue to support our lodge, our community, and our charities.

Everyone, LOE members and non LOE members are always welcome to our events.

THE GRAND LODGE ENVSE AT WORK FOR OUR VETS

On May 3rd Tampa Elk Edie Hanley delivered over $500 worth of shampoo, T shirts, underwear, combs and brushes to Angela Reinhart the Voluntary Services Coordinator at Elks National Veteran's Service Center at James A Haley VA Hospital for the veterans that have very little and are in need of help. Edie had been emailed a shopping list, obtained approval, made the purchases as part of her duties as the ENVSE representative for James A. Haley. Edie is also the Loyal Knight for Tampa 708 and had been provided a list from Angela Reinhart.

Club Chivalry News

The final Club Chivalry event of the school year was the Relay for Life of Tampa, a fundraising event for the American Cancer Society. Club Chivalry has a team, and Tampa Elks Lodge is a sponsor.

This was our 8th year participating, and it may well have been the best one yet. Tampa Elk member Kristina Chowning was the Event Activity Lead, while Tampa Elk Becky Sullins was the Survivor Lead. You know when they come together- it's going to get real.

I hadn't been feeling well and had to rely heavily on my family to get our shade tent booth set up. Elk Douglas Grant made three separate trips to Robinson High Stadium that night. Patty Volpe arrived earlier and stayed longer than she planned, but with their help we were set up and ready to go on time.

The event started off at 6:00 with a celebratory dinner open to all registered cancer survivors and caregivers. We had three attend from Tampa Elks. Robert Bordonaro is a cancer survivor, and Susie Harlow and Bob Orcutt were caregivers. They enjoyed the program and the Chicken Marsala dinner, and afterwards joined us at our tent, they had each received two big two big swag bags full of goodies. too. Robert Bordonaro was treated to a lap around the track in a Convertible- the opening lap is always the Survivor lap.

After that - it was time for on site Fun Raising. Each of the teams has something to sell- games, food, merchandise, etc. That is the part that makes the relay fun and brings out the community. The estimate is that over 1000 people showed up. The Club Chivalry Activity was our famous Booty or Booby game. Patty Volpe took the front as our carnival hawkker; Susie Harlow manned the Treasure Chest. The Club kids walked the tracks. By roughly 9:00 the luminaries had been distributed to the camp sites and the lights went out.

It is truly a moving sight to walk a lap and see how many lives have been adversely touched by Cancer. This year I lucked out and had no students bring a permission slip to stay past 11, so after the lights came back on, we were able to begin to pack up. Elk Member Christien Elkins arrived as planned at 11 to help me pack the car and then unload back at the Lodge. We had 85 customers that night, and still did not run out of prizes.

Relay for Life is a community wide event by the American Cancer Society. - it is not affiliated with the school board, though all the schools in S Tampa encourage participation and support teams. Club Chivalry had 14 students and 5 Elks on it's team We sold 18 luminaires and raised a total of $2008 for the American Cancer Society. The event exceeded the goal the goal, raising an astounding $130,901.

Rita Smith, PER, Club Chivalry Project Manager.

LOE DERBY 2023

On May 6th, the sun was shining bright upon our lodge. You could feel the excitement in the air as the owners, jockey, and spectators gather to see if their prized horse would win the coveted LOE Kentucky Derby Horse Race. Keeping it classy, as only he can do, was our Master of Ceremony Tommy Miller. The races were tight, the tension was palpable and in the end we all had a great time!

It took many hands to make this event happen. In the kitchen was Tommy More and Joe LoCicero. Taking your "money" and your bets was Laura Jones, April Holtzman and Crystal Johnson. Overseeing the very popular Spinning Wheel was Tracy Horrell. Leading the effort for our 50/50 for Childrens Therapy Services was Edie Hanley. Our live auction was eloquently MC'd by Shelagh Gombarcik. And last, but not least, Sue Moore gathered, coordinated, and displayed all of our auction items.

Thank you to all so came out to support the Ladies and Childrens Therapy Services. Your support made this one of our most successful Kentucky Derby Horse Races.

See you next year at the races,

Jacque LoCicero, PLP, President, Ladies of the Elks

2022-2023 AMERICANISM ESSAY CONTEST WINNERS

Subject Title - WHAT IS YOUR AMERICAN DREAM?
 School Contact and Lodge Member - Dr. Kristina Chowning
 English Teacher - Nancy Jergins

130 essays were submitted to the Lodge Americanism Chairman: Richard H. Florance, PER and judged by committee members, Sandra Lake, Lisa Snyder, and Susie Harlow.

3 were submitted to the district and the final results for the Statewide Florida Essays are:

Division III 7th Grade - Coleman Middle School

First Prize Winner: Mr. Jackson Rooney - $1,500

Second Prize Winner: Ms. Naisha Singhai - $750

Jackson Rooney wrote:

As a kid, I had so many dreams. But there is only one that really stands out. I grew up watching military movies and looking at military documents at a young age, they were practically embedded in me. I watched "Top Gun" at three years old, and other movies like "Blackhawk Down" at four. I think the dream for me would be serving my country. I only see it one way. I don't strive for money- it would be a nice bonus- I just want to give my country my all. It is what I grew up around and what I admired. It would give me pride and honor. The real goal all together, is to represent my family, and I prefer to do that through the military. Different people have different goals and different achievements they desire, and I will not stop until I have achieved and reached my brilliant goal. I think that should be the American Dream, to ultimately complete your goal, the one you set all along That should be "The American Dream".

Naisha Singhai wrote:

I am an American citizen born to immigrant parents from India. This county thrives on diversity, opportunity, and acceptance. America identified and recognized my father's talent and expertise and invited him to serve America. Being a citizen in the United States is more than a birth certificate or document that verifies that you are. Whether you were born a United States citizen or chose to become a citizen, the same rights will stand true: rights of freedom of expression, religion, fair trial, employment, to vote or to run for elected office and the right to pursue "Life, Liberty and the Pursuit of Happiness." Today, freedom is often overlooked because all of us are used to it, but in many countries, freedom is just the "American Dream."

From the birth of America to America today, the driving force and the heart of America has always been the American Dream." The "American Dream" is a goal for the majority of people who live in the realms of the Americanized world. To me the "American dream" is not just a dollar sign, or desk name tag at work but the ability to walk into a room or a home and know that your presence is welcomed and looked forward to. Regardless of culture and other differences, each individual should have an idea of their own "American dream" based on their beliefs and lifestyles they wish to live. All I dream is simply to help other people, while in the process to become a better person. I believe that the "American Dream" is controlling my own destiny, becoming successful, and living free.
